WHY ARE THE STARS ROMANTIC?

Omar S. Alattas

I close my eyes,
You are on my mind.
The Apple of your eyes,
Is all they can find.

The brightest star in the sky,
Enviess the shine of your twinkling dark eyes.
On this Valentine's Day I'd like to say,
I care more than you realize.

For the magic in your eyes,
Sent me out of control.
Their magic spell,
Played the harp of my soul.
