

THANKS JIM

Observing beyond your preferred façade and sometimes zany wit
Has brought forth new applaud
For topics formerly labeled as bullshit!

An approach abounding with stimuli
Was eloquently presented here
Topped off with,
“I’ll buy the pizza and the beer.”

A mere word of appreciation
Seems such a trivial thing
But with inspiration leading to aspiration
I guess you pulled my string.

So, thanks to you and your creative show
Aimed at more realistic self-evaluation
We have a better chance with “The Flow.”
In educational administration.
